

September + October 2010

Don't forget our ANNUAL SERVICE

Come and celebrate with us @ Stopsley Baptist Church, Sunday September 19th 2010, 7pm.

Thanks for your support! We hope this guide will inspire you to remember the young people of Luton each day in your prayers.

september

BEGINNING MONDAY 13th Sept

Pray this week for the Chaplaincy Team.

- For the new Chaplaincy staff as they get to know LCET and the local schools. That they will settle in really well.
- For Jane, managing this new team.
- For the trial run of the Porticus Project running in Cardinal Newman, helping young people to develop spirituality in all areas of school life. Pray it will be a success and that other schools will be open to the project.

BEGINNING MONDAY 30th Aug

Please pray for young people and staff as they return to schools/colleges over the next couple of weeks.

- That school staff will feel rested and ready for the start of the new academic year.
- For those starting a new school or college, that they will settle in well.
- For those young people facing difficult family situations.

BEGINNING MONDAY 6th Sept

This week, pray for Amy, as she manages Schoolswork.co.uk.

- For the 'Imagine' conference, for Christians schoolworkers, on 10th September.
- That those attending will feel inspired and encouraged for the year ahead.
- That Amy will have wisdom, energy and passion for the continual development of the project and the website.

BEGINNING MONDAY 20th Sept

B1 Cafe is a central hub for many areas of our work with young people, pray this week for:

- Tim, the new Cafe Chaplain, that he will settle in quickly and develop good relationships with young people.
- That the LCET building will be a safe and fun environment for all.
- That through the events and cafes, young people will learn more about God.
- For positive relationships to be built.

BEGINNING MONDAY 27th Sept

Pray this week for Rachel Welch as she heads up the Selfharm.co.uk project.

- For Rachel, leading Self Harm Training at a conference on the 30th September.
- Continued guidance for Rachel and the Advisory Group.
- For preparations for the launch of the new national website.
- For the development of new training strategies.

BEGINNING MONDAY 4th Oct

Please pray this week for the Compass team in this new academic year.

- For Jason, as he leads the Compass Team.
- That additional funding will become available for the project.
- That as many schools as possible will become involved in the project.
- For the intake of new students, settling in and learning new things.
- The team, preparing for a very busy year.

BEGINNING MONDAY 11th Oct

Please pray for the Senior Management team as they lead LCET forward and the Trustees as they seek to guide Chris and the team.

- For God given wisdom and faithfulness in planning for the future.
- Time for restoration and family amongst the busyness of managing the work of LCET.
- For funding for the year ahead, for LCET, Schoolswork.co.uk and Selfharm.co.uk.

october

BEGINNING MONDAY 18th Oct

Please pray for the Therapeutic Team working with new young people this term.

- For the initial contact with young people, pray that this is encouraging for them.
- For new groups as they start, for cohesion and trust to develop quickly.
- The team, as they plan the Therapeutic residential trip for next month.
- Pray for Lynsey, managing the team.

BEGINNING MONDAY 25th Oct

Please pray for young people for whom school or home life is difficult.

- For those starting Therapeutic groups, that it will be a supportive and helpful experience.
- Young people struggling with the issues of drugs and alcohol abuse.
- Wisdom for teachers and staff working with young people, all with different issues.
- For family life in Luton.

LCET

switch the light on